

ISURU UDARA

Undergraduate, Information Technology

I am an expert web developer with strong object-oriented programming (OOP) skills, working with the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React, and Node.js). I'm really good in UI/UX design, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I have completed several projects as an undergraduate studying information technology at SLIIT, showcasing my abilities in developing excellent web applications. I'm looking for an internship so I can develop my skills even more.
